Norwood, Charles

Charles Norwood was County Treasurer in 1898 and was forced to resign his position as a result of the coup on November 1898. Norwood's father was John G. Norwood of Wilmington. Charles moved from the city and relocated to New York where he worked in the customs service at the port. By 1910, Norwood was living in Philadelphia with his family. His brother William also relocated to Philadelphia and worked as a building laborer. The Norwoods are profiled in Chapter 8 of this report.

Norwood, John G.

John G. Norwood was an Alderman under Silas Wright and was forced to resign. Norwood worked as a carpenter and lived at 202 Walnut Street. Norwood was a wealthy and was active at St. Mark's Church. Norwood is profiled in Chapter 8 of this report.

Peamon, Carter [Pearmon, Pearman]

Peamon was a member of the Committee of Colored Citizens summoned to hear demands of Waddell and the Committee of 25 on November 9, 1898. Peamon was active in the Republican Party and operated a barbershop. On the day of the violence, Peamon was killed. More information on his death can be found in Chapter 5 of this report. He was not listed in the 1897 city directory. Peamon's brother Moses was listed as a barber at 820 N. 4th and his home was located at 9126 N. 8th Street. Peamon and his brother shared a barbershop. Moses was also forced to leave the city on the day of the violence. Peamon has not been located in the census.

A man with the name Carter Payman (age 45) was located in the 1870 census. This made was born in South Carolina and was working as a laborer in Mobile, Alabama at the time. If this is the Carter Peamon who was murdered in Wilmington, he would have been 73 at the time of the violence. George Peamon, probably related to Carter, was in Wilmington by 1880 and working as a barber. He lived at 719 N. 4th Street, was born in North Carolina and was 19 years old. George moved to Norfolk by 1900 and continued to work as a barber. Moses Peamon, Carter's brother was listed as a barber, working at 916 N. 8th Street and living at 820 N. 4th Street. A Moses Payman was listed in the 1870 Wilmington census with his mother Susan. Both were born in Virginia and they lived in the household of Eliza Mabson.
